The Mayor stated with regard to Arbor Day the school will once again be involved. Open to all students grades one through three: Imagine that you climbed the tallest tree in Tuckerton, the higher you climb, the more you notice all the wonderful parts of our town. What do you see from this amazing view? Due by Friday, April 5th. There will be first and second place prizes. Chosen pieces will be displayed in the Tuckerton borough complex. Top winners will read their writings at the Annual Arbor Day Celebration, 6:00 PM, Friday April 26th, at the Tuckerton Complex, 420 East Main Street. The Mayor also stated she spoke with Ms. McAndrew and the medals were ordered.

Mr. Martin presented an update on Easter candy. He stated he can get as much candy donated as we need however he can't get candy that will fit inside of the Easter eggs. A discussion was held to seek candy donations from Acme, WalMart and Shop Rite. However a motion was made to purchase any Easter candy that may be needed to stuff the Easter eggs.
