Ms. Gioiello made a motion to approve the April 23, 2025 minutes; the motion was second by Ms. Peterson; all in favor, none opposed.

Old Business:

Chairman Martin gave a recap of Arbor Day. He stated the event was nice and it was fun seeing the school kids read their essays. The medals awarded were nice and the chairman will look to see if we can get more for next year.

New Business:

Chairman Martin stated there were 30 homes signed up for the town wide yard sale. Mr. Wayne Martin stated that the stage is almost complete. Chairman Martin showed everyone the 8' x 4' banner that will be displayed behind the stage. He then mentioned we are currently looking for sponsors for the concerts. The committee talked about Halloween and are planning to do something the night before and try to involve the Historic Society. The Committee then talked briefly about Ye Olde Christmas. Pride and Celebration will be the committee to work with New Jersey Revolution to celebrate the 250 year anniversary of the USA and the role New Jersey played in the revolution (next year).
